LOOKING TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR 2017 PROPERTY TAXES?

The Maine State Legislature has enacted legislation giving homeowners significant property tax relief. If you own a home in Caribou AND make it your permanent residence, you may be entitled to a reduction in your property tax valuation. The amount of this reduction is based on the total value of the exemption granted by the Maine State Legislature (currently $15,000 of value) and the City of Caribou's annual certified ratio (currently 100%). In 2015, a typical eligible homeowner saved $343.50.

To qualify an individual must have owned a permanent residence in Maine for twelve months prior to April 1st of the current tax year. An individual may have only ONE permanent residence at any time and may NOT claim a permanent residence in more than one community or state.

The enclosed "Application for Homestead Exemption" must be completed and returned to the City of Caribou Assessor's office by April 1, 2017 to be eligible for the 2017 tax year. If a property owner moves to a new permanent residence, it is the property owner's responsibility to submit a new application for a homestead exemption on the current permanent residence.

INSTRUCTIONS

SECTION 1. Check the appropriate box related to each question. You must check all three boxes to qualify for the Maine homestead property tax exemption. If you have moved during the year and owned a homestead in Maine prior to your move, enter the name of the municipality you moved from on line b(1). Your ownership of a homestead must have been continuous for the 12-month period prior to application. If you did not check any all boxes in this section, you do not qualify for the homestead property tax exemption. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States who is permanently stationed at a military or naval post, station or base in this state is deemed to be a permanent Maine resident. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States does not include a member of the National Guard or the Reserves.

SECTION 2. Enter your full name(s) as shown on your property tax bill, the physical location of your home and your mailing address.

SECTION 3. This section gives the local assessor information which may be used to determine if you qualify and should support your answers to the questions in SECTION 1. Please check the appropriate box for each of the statements in this section.

At least one of the owners of the homestead must sign this document. Please file the application with your local municipal assessor. If, for any reason, you are denied exemption by the assessor, you may appeal the assessor's decision under the abatement statute, 36 M.R.S. § 841.

DEFINITIONS

Homestead. "Homestead" means residential real property owned by an individual or individuals and occupied by those individuals as their permanent residence. Residential real property held in a revocable living trust for a beneficiary who occupies the property as his or her permanent residence also qualifies as a homestead.

Permanent residence. "Permanent residence" means that place where an individual has a true, fixed, and permanent home and principal establishment to which the individual, whenever absent, has the intention of returning. An individual may have only one permanent residence at a time and, once a permanent residence is established, that residence is presumed to continue until circumstances indicate otherwise.

Permanent resident. "Permanent resident" means an individual who has established a permanent residence.

A cooperative housing corporation may apply for a homestead exemption to be applied against the valuation of property of the corporation that is occupied by qualifying shareholders. To qualify, the corporation must complete an Application for Maine Homestead Property Tax Exemption for Cooperative Housing Corporations.
