YES

NO

Amendment Summary

A Charter Amendment which modifies Section 5 of the Caribou City Charter to change the budget preparation process starting in October and ending in December prior to a budget year, to a process that starts in November and runs three months into the new budget year. The new process provides for expenses and revenues to be reviewed simultaneously rather than independently. Provision is also made for the city to operate under the prior year budget until a new budget is adopted. Public hearing and budget forum requirements remain in place.
