LOOKING TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR 2022 PROPERTY TAXES?

The Maine State Legislature has enacted legislation giving homeowners significant property tax relief. If you own a home in Caribou AND make it your permanent residence, you may be entitled to a reduction in your property tax valuation. The amount of this reduction is based on the total value of the exemption granted by the Maine State Legislature (currently $25,000 of value) and the City of Caribou's annual certified ratio (currently 100%). In 2021, a typical eligible homeowner saved $588.75.

To qualify an individual must have owned a permanent residence in Maine for twelve months prior to April 1st of the current tax year. An individual may have only ONE permanent residence at any time and may NOT claim a permanent residence in more than one community or state.

The enclosed "Application for Homestead Exemption" must be completed and returned to the City of Caribou Assessor's office by April 1, 2022 to be eligible for the 2022 tax year. If a property owner moves to a new permanent residence, it is the property owner's responsibility to submit a new application for a homestead exemption on the current permanent residence.

DEFINITIONS

Homestead. "Homestead" means residential real property owned by an individual or individuals and occupied by those individuals as their permanent residence. Residential real property held in a revocable living trust for a beneficiary who occupies the property as his or her permanent residence also qualifies as a homestead. A resident homeowner who is subject to foreclosure and subsequently purchases the home back from the municipality is considered to have no interruption in homeownership for purposes of this exemption.

Municipality. "Municipality" means any city, town, plantation, or that portion of a county in the unorganized territory.

Permanent residence. "Permanent residence" means that place where an individual has a true, fixed, and permanent home and principal establishment to which the individual, whenever absent, has the intention of returning. An individual may have only one permanent residence at a time and, once a permanent residence is established, that residence is presumed to continue until circumstances indicate otherwise.

Permanent resident. "Permanent resident" means an individual who has established a permanent residence.

A cooperative housing corporation may apply for a homestead exemption to be applied against the valuation of property of the corporation that is occupied by qualifying shareholders. To qualify, the corporation must complete an Application for Maine Homestead Property Tax Exemption for Cooperative Housing Corporations.
