Requirements

Eligibility:

State law sets the requirements for election workers:

- Must be at least 18 years old
- Must be a registered Maine voter
- Must be a resident of the municipality or county where they will be serving
- 16 and 17 year olds who are conditionally registered to vote are allowed to serve
- Must not be a candidate or a member of a candidate's immediate family

Duties and Tasks:

Although the work may vary slightly, the following duties are standard at many polling places:

- Check in voters at the Incoming Voting List check-in table
- Distribute ballots
- Monitor the voting machine or ballot box
- Help tally results at the end of the night

Benefits:

There are several benefits of working at the polls:

- Opportunity to help community and residents
- Chance to visit and see neighbors, former co-workers, old friends that you may not have seen in a while
- Learn more about the election process
- Some positions are paid positions and some are volunteer; this varies between communities
