ABATEMENT INFORMATION & APPLICATION PACKET 2025

Here are answers to frequently asked questions. Note: This document is not a substitute for reading the enclosed materials: Maine Revenue Services Property Tax Division Property Tax Bulletin # 10 and Maine Revised Statutes Title 36: Taxation Part 2: Property Taxes Chapter 105: Cities and Towns Subchapter 8: Abatement. If either of these items is missing from your packet, please call (207) 493 – 5962 (Hannah Holmes, in the City Manager's office).

If I disagree with my property valuation, what is the first step in the process?

- The first step is an informal meeting to review your property record card. Please call the office to get a copy of the property record card to be mailed, emailed, faxed, or picked up.
- The Assessor's Agent will call to answer questions you have and go over your assessment.
- The Assessor's Agent will make appointments to visit your property if requested.
 - These meetings are by appointment only.
- According to Maine taxation law, there is a presumption of correctness on the part of the assessor and all property value is considered reasonable. The burden of proving the assessed value is unreasonable rests with the property owner. To prevail, the property owner must submit convincing evidence that the property was overvalued by more than 10% when compared to similarly situated properties.
- Your opinion must be supported by the facts. Please review the assessed values of other properties in your neighborhood and properties that have recently been sold prior to meeting with the Assessor.

When may I apply for abatement?

- Taxes must have been committed to apply for abatement. After receiving the tax bill, if you feel you have a valid reason for requesting abatement, you may request an "Abatement Information and Application Packet" from the Assessor's office.

When is the deadline for applying for abatement?

- March 23, 2026 (Title 36 of the Maine Revised Statutes states that a written application must be filed within 185 days of commitment. The commitment date as set by the Caribou City Council was September 19, 2025)

How do I meet the requirements of filing for abatement?

- Read the Maine law as it relates to abatement and understand the reasons for which you may (and may not) seek abatement (enclosed in this packet)
- Complete and sign the application provided by the Assessor's office
- Return the application and all supporting documentation to the Assessor's office on or before March 23, 2026.
- The Assessor has 60 days from receipt of your application to respond. In Caribou, it is the Board of Assessors who will hear the evidence and decide on abatement requests. The Board of Assessors is made up of three Caribou residents.

May I have an opportunity to meet with the Board of Assessors when my abatement request is considered?

- You may attend if you choose. The Assessor's office will mail a meeting notice to the mailing address given on the abatement application. It will include the date, time, and location of the meeting. These meetings are scheduled as needed. Generally, meetings are held on a weekday morning at the Caribou Municipal Building, located at 25 High Street.
- You are not required to attend the meeting.

How long before I know the Board of Assessor's decision on my application?

- You will be notified, in writing, within 10 days of their final action on the application.
- If you do not receive a response within 60 days of your written application, your application is deemed to have been denied.

If the Board of Assessors denies my abatement application, may I appeal the decision?

- Yes, you may appeal the abatement denial to the Aroostook County Commissioners. Applications must be made by writing to the County Commissioners within 60 days of your denial notice or after the application is deemed to have been denied.
- Nonresidential properties of $1,000,000 or greater must, within 60 days, appeal the decision to the State Board of Property Tax Review
- Properties assessed under "Current Use" law: appeal must be made to the State Board of Property Tax Review

If the Aroostook County Commissioners denies my appeal, may I appeal the decision?

- The appeal must be made to the Superior Court within 30 days in accordance with the Maine Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 80B.

Do I need to have my taxes paid to file an abatement request or an appeal?

- If your property is valued under $500,000, no.
- If your property is valued over $500,000, the taxpayer must pay either an amount of current taxes equal to the amount of tax paid in the immediately preceding tax year (so long as this does not exceed current year taxes) or the amount of current year taxes not in dispute, whichever is greater.
- Any disputed tax amount should be made on or before the normal due date. The late payment of any taxes not abated will be subject to the normal interest rate to be applied from the normal due date to the date of actual payment. If you are due a refund because of abated taxes, that refund will be paid with interest accrued from the date the abatement is approved by the Board of Assessors.

On what grounds may I file an abatement request with the Board of Assessors?

- Substantial overvaluation (Maine Constitution, Article IX § 8)
- Unjust discrimination (Maine Constitution, Article IX, § 8)
- Illegality, Error, or Irregularity (36 MRSA § 841 (1))

What do I need to prove?

- The property owner will need to prove that a valid reason for abatement exists. This may require a submission of evidence that:
 - The judgement of the assessor was irrational or so unreasonable in light of the circumstances that the property is substantially overvalued and an injustice results
 - There was unjust discrimination.
 - The assessment was fraudulent, dishonest or illegal.
 - The assessment is in error because of defective listing data, which may include dimensional errors, incorrect areas, nonexistent features, and for buildings, incorrect material or type of construction.
- The property owner is NOT required to submit an appraisal. However, if you find that an independent appraisal would be helpful to your case, keep in mind:
 - The appraisal or appraisals must be done by a professional licensed appraiser
 - The purpose of the appraisal must be for possible tax abatement
 - The appraisal must show that the subject property's current assessed value is more than 10% in excess of the market value of comparable properties as of the time period when the City of Caribou conducted the most recent update of property valuations (April 1, 2025).
 - Since variations are likely to be found in the valuation of properties in Caribou, it is necessary to consider the average treatment of other properties. The fact that some properties may be found to be valued on a higher or lower basis is not significant if the range of deviation is not excessive.

What if I think that my taxes are just "too high" and I can't pay them?

- This application for abatement is considered only on the property's assessed value
- A property owner's opinion that the tax on a property is "too high" is NOT grounds for abatement. The municipal budget, the RSU#39 school budget and the Aroostook County budget determine the amount of revenue that must be raised by taxation.
- There is a provision under the State of Maine's property tax abatement and appeals procedures that allows for the municipal officers (Caribou City Council) to make a reasonable abatement of property taxes for reasons of "Poverty or Infirmary". This is a separate information and application packet because this is reviewed and decided on by the City Council and not the Board of Assessors.
- Consider the "Current Use" programs currently offered by the State of Maine if your property qualifies
- Check with the Assessor's office to be certain that you are receiving all the partial exemptions that you qualify for (Homestead, Veteran & Blind)
- The "Maine Residents Property Tax and Rent Refund 'Circuit Breaker' Program" has been repealed and has been replaced by a refundable Property Tax Fairness Credit that can be claimed on the Maine Individual Income Tax Form. More details are available online at: www.maine.gov/revenue.

DOCUMENTATION IN SUPPORT OF ABATEMENT REQUEST IS REQUIRED

Applications must be filed with the Assessor's office within 185 days from the date of commitment of the tax to which objection is made. The tax commitment date for 2025 is: Friday September 19, 2025. The deadline for abatement applications is Monday March 23, 2026. Filing this abatement request does not suspend, stop, or exclude you from paying your taxes on time prior to the deadline dates. Be advised that interest accrues on unpaid taxes, even during the Board of Assessors' review period, after the date and at the interest rate set by the Caribou City Council.

The Board of Assessors will review and base decision(s) solely on information provided by the applicant.

The more detailed and relevant information supporting your claim included with your application, the better. By giving the Board of Assessors specific reasons for your request and justifying your desired reduction, you increase the likelihood of a favorable outcome. While the assessed value assigned to your property is based on market value, the fairness of the assessment when compared to other similar properties, is given the most weight when reviewing an abatement request. For example, personal circumstances or inability to pay taxes do not impact market value and therefore cannot be considered for abatement purposes.

Written notice of the decision will be given by the Assessor's office within 10 days after the Board of Assessors takes final action on the application. If such written notice is not given within 60 days from the date the application is received by the Assessor, the applicant may and should consider the application as having been denied and the applicant at that time has the right to further appeal as provided by Statute.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions:

- A separate application should be filed for each separately assessed parcel of real estate claimed to be overvalued.
- This application must be filed with the Tax Assessor within 185 days from the date of commitment of the tax to which objection is made. For the 2025 tax year, 185 days from the date of commitment (September 19, 2025) is March 23, 2026.
- All sections must be completed.

Specific instructions for each question:

1. Please print the full name of the applicant(s)
2. Please answer (yes or no) to the question “Were you the owner on April 1”? Also, please provide a working telephone number.
3. Please print the location of the property as shown on your tax bill.
4. Please provide the Map and Lot #, if applicable (not applicable for personal property), or the Account # as shown on your tax bill.
5. Please print the full address to which mail should be sent regarding this abatement application.
6. Taxes are assessed as of April 1. The tax assessed as of April 1 of any year and billed thereafter is for the tax for that year. Example: For the 2025 tax year, each account is assessed as to the status of the account on April 1, 2025 as per Maine state law. The Caribou City Council has set the tax commitment date as September 19, 2025. When you pay your bill, it covers the period of January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025.
7. Show the actual assessed valuation of the particular parcel of Real Estate covered by this application, as to which abatement is requested. If abatement of Real Estate valuation is not requested, do not fill in this item. Show the actual assessed valuation of Personal Property. If abatement of Personal Property is not requested, do not fill in this item.
8. Please print the date that the “true list” was filed with the Assessor’s office. This applies only to business personal property accounts. Businesses are requested to provide the Assessor’s office with a “true and perfect list of all their estates, not by law exempt from taxation, of which they were possessed on the first day of April of the same year ” (36 MRS § 706). This true and perfect inventory list is sent by the business in response to the letter and form mailed by the Assessor’s office each spring.
9. Please show the amount by which you believe the valuation of Real Estate or Personal Property should be reduced (top line). For example: if the valuation (shown in section 7) is $5,000 and you feel that it should be reduced by $2000 to a total assessment of $3000, you would enter $2000 on this line. Then please show the total amount you feel your property is worth (lower line). Using the same example, you would enter $3000 on this line.
10. Please state the specific reasons why you believe you are being overvalued. Please be specific. The property owner must meet his burden of proof that the assessment meets the criteria for abatement. This was affirmed in the 2001 case of Yusem v. Town of Raymond, where the Maine Supreme Court held to overcome the presumption of validity, the taxpayer must present credible, affirmative evidence that the assessor’s valuation was “manifestly wrong”.

MAINE REVENUE SERVICES PROPERTY TAX DIVISION BULLETIN NO. 10

PROPERTY TAX ABATEMENT AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

REFERENCE: 36 M.R.S. Chapter 105, Subchapter 8
September 25, 2025; replaces July 7, 2024 revision

1. General

Taxpayers who believe their property is overvalued or who believe there was an error or mistake in their assessment may appeal their assessment by requesting an abatement. The abatement process provides a path for a taxpayer who disagrees with their property tax assessment to present evidence and request a reduction in property tax. This bulletin explains the process and requirements for requesting a property tax abatement and any subsequent appeals.

This bulletin focuses on abatement requests where a taxpayer believes their property is overvalued or believes there was an error or mistake in their assessment. Maine law also allows abatement of property taxes in some circumstances for people who are unable to pay those taxes as a result of hardship or poverty. Hardship or poverty abatements apply only to a person's primary residence, and application for abatement must be filed with the municipality within three years of the commitment date. For additional information on hardship or poverty abatements, contact your municipality.

This bulletin is intended solely as advice to assist persons in determining, exercising, or complying with their legal rights, duties, or privileges. If further information is needed, contact the Property Tax Division of Maine Revenue Services ("MRS").

2. Definitions

- A. Assessor. "Assessor" means a sworn municipal assessing authority, whether an individual assessor, a board of assessors, or a chief assessor of a primary assessing area. With respect to the unorganized territory, "assessor" means the State Tax Assessor.
- B. Commitment date. "Commitment date" means the date that the list of taxpayers and the amounts of property tax due for a municipality is officially turned over to the municipal tax collector for collecting that year's property taxes. For property located in the unorganized territory, "commitment date" means the date that taxes are certified by the State Tax Assessor pursuant to 36 M.R.S. § 341.
- C. Just value. "Just value" means market value, i.e., the amount in cash that could reasonably be expected to be paid by an informed buyer to an informed seller for a property, each acting without compulsion in an arm's-length transaction.

- D. Assessed value. “Assessed value” means the property value established by the assessor for purposes of local property taxation. Assessed value may be equal to, higher than, or lower than market value.
- E. Municipal officers. “Municipal officers,” as defined in 36 M.R.S. § 501(4), means the mayor, councilors and alderman of cities, members of the select board of towns, and the assessors of plantations. For property located in the unorganized territory, “municipal officers” means the State Tax Assessor.
- F. Nonresidential property. “Nonresidential property” means property that is used primarily for commercial, industrial, or business purposes, excluding unimproved land not associated with such uses.

3. Valuation Appeals

The assessor’s job is to fairly value the property in the municipality. Fair values are essential for distributing the tax burden equitably among all municipal taxpayers. Total taxable property value in a municipality and that municipality’s budget are used to determine the local tax rate. Your property value is multiplied by the local tax rate to determine your share of the municipal, school district, and county budget that must be raised through the property tax. If a property is overvalued, an unfair tax burden is placed on the owner of the property; if a property is undervalued, an unfair tax burden is placed on all other taxpayers in the municipality.

- A. Determination of value. An assessor uses many tools to determine the value of each property in a municipality, but there are three general valuation methods that all assessors employ. These methods are the market approach, the cost approach, and the income approach. The market approach values a property by using recent local sales of similar or “comparable” properties. The cost approach calculates the cost to replace a particular property, then adjusts the cost for age, wear, and other factors to find the value of that property. The income approach estimates value based on the potential income of a property. The income approach is normally limited to income-producing property, but the other two approaches apply to all types of property.
- B. Revaluation. Occasionally, municipalities perform full property revaluations, which analyze the value of all property in a municipality and update their assessed values to more accurately reflect just value. These revaluations sometimes result in substantial increases in value for individual properties. This change can translate to the tax on some properties increasing, some decreasing, and some remaining roughly the same. An increase in your property value does not necessarily mean there will be an increase in your property tax.
- C. Overvaluation. Overvaluation may occur for any number of reasons. If your property is overvalued, this may be the result of an unintended error during the valuation process. For example, perhaps your house was reported as being built in 1994, when it was actually built in 1949, or your tax bill says you own 12 acres of land when you only own 1.2 acres. These errors can usually be detected easily by checking your property record card, which contains details of your property that are used for property tax purposes. If you believe that the assessed value of your property is too high, it is recommended that you ask your assessor for a copy of your property record card and check it for errors.

Some overvaluations, however, may require more research than just checking your property record card. If land values in your neighborhood are grouped with the land values of a nearby, more desirable neighborhood, but sales of similar properties in both neighborhoods show that land in your neighborhood is not as valuable as the land in the other neighborhood, your property may be overvalued.

- D. Certified Ratio. Municipalities are not required to assess all property at 100% of just value. Many municipalities assess property at some percent of just value, referred to as the municipality's certified ratio. For example, if the just value of your property is $250,000, but your assessed value is $275,000, that does not necessarily mean that your property is overvalued for tax purposes. If your municipality assesses all property at 110% of just value, meaning the certified ratio is 110%, then your property is valued correctly.

$$$250,000 \text{ just value} \times 110\% \text{ certified ratio} = $275,000 \text{ assessed value}$$

If, however, your property is assessed at 110% and all other property in the municipality is assessed at 90%, then your property may be overvalued.

- E. Burden of Proof. The burden of proof is on you, the taxpayer, to show that your property is overvalued or that there was an error or mistake in your assessment. To provide this evidence, you may have to do some research. The assessor's office has data on recent sales in the municipality that you can request. You may even be able to access this data online. In any event, simply disagreeing with the assessed value will not result in a property tax abatement; you must prove your case, either by pointing out an error or by showing the correct just value based on recent local sales of properties similar to yours.

4. Other Appeals

In addition to valuation disputes, the abatement process is also the means by which a taxpayer may appeal certain other decisions related to their property tax assessment. For example, if you apply for the Homestead Exemption in your municipality and your application is denied, you may appeal that denial by filing an abatement application as described in this bulletin. Application denials for the following programs may be appealed using the abatement process:

- Homestead Exemption
- Veteran Exemption
- Blind Exemption
- Business Equipment Tax Exemption
- Working Waterfront Program
- Renewable Energy Equipment Exemption
- Open Space Tax Law Program
- Tree Growth Tax Law Program
- Farmland Tax Law Program

5. The Abatement Process

Once you feel that you have adequate facts to prove that your property is overvalued or that there was an error or mistake in your assessment, you must submit a written abatement request to your assessor. Your municipality may have a specific form that you must fill out, but all abatement requests must include the amount of the abatement requested and the reason for requesting the abatement. Once you submit an abatement request, the assessor will review it and decide whether your request is justified. If the assessor agrees with you, they will lower your property value and adjust your tax bill. Generally, the assessor is only allowed by law to adjust your current year's tax bill. In some limited cases, past taxes may be adjusted. See Section 7 below for more information.

The following requirements apply to abatement requests.

- A. In writing. All abatement requests and appeals must be made in writing.
- B. Burden of proof. As mentioned above, the burden of proof lies with the taxpayer in an abatement request. This means that to receive an abatement, you must show evidence that your property is overvalued or that there was an error or mistake in your assessment. This evidence must prove that the assessed value of your property is wrong. Simply stating that your property is overvalued will not be sufficient to change the assessed value of your property.
- C. Information requests. If the assessor sent a request for information about your property pursuant to 36 M.R.S. § 706-A, you must provide that information or you will not be allowed to appeal any abatement decision by the assessor. If you were unable to respond to the information request when it was sent to you, you can submit the information and an explanation of why you were not able to respond by the deadline with your written appeal. If your explanation is satisfactory, your appeal may be heard. See Bulletin No. 2 – True and Perfect Lists for more information.

6. Appeals

- A. Appeal of assessor decision. If the assessor denies your abatement request or does not lower your property value to an amount that you agree with, you have the right to appeal that decision. If your municipality has adopted a board of assessment review, appeals of assessor decisions usually go to the local board of assessment review. If your municipality does not have a board of assessment review, appeals usually go to the county commissioners, or, in certain counties, the county board of assessment review. Exceptions to those general rules are set forth below in this section. The written decision from the assessor on your abatement request should contain contact information for filing an appeal.
 - (1) Exception for current use property. If your property is enrolled in one of the current use programs, your first appeal goes to the State Board of Property Tax Review. Current use programs are:
 - a. Tree Growth Tax Law program. See 36 M.R.S. §§ 571 – 584-A and Property Tax Bulletin No. 19.

- b. Farmland Tax Law program. See 36 M.R.S. §§ 1101 – 1121 and Property Tax Bulletin No. 20.
 - c. Open Space Tax Law program. See 36 M.R.S. §§ 1101 – 1121 and Property Tax Bulletin No. 21.
 - d. Working Waterfront program. See 36 M.R.S. §§ 1131 – 1140-B and Property Tax Bulletin No. 36.
- (2) Exception for certain nonresidential property. If your municipality has a board of assessment review, the first appeal for nonresidential property assessed at $1 million or more goes to the local board of assessment review. If your municipality does not have a board of assessment review and your property is nonresidential property assessed at $1 million or more, you may only appeal to the State Board of Property Tax Review.
- In all appeals to the State Board of Property Tax Review involving nonresidential property assessed at $1 million or more, both parties must participate in mediation (unless specifically excused by the Chair of the State Board of Property Tax Review). If mediation does not resolve the issue, the State Board of Property Tax Review will hear the appeal.
- (3) Exception for certain challenges. Certain challenges to tax assessments that are not based on claims that property is overvalued, such as exemption claims or claims that an individual has been taxed on property that the individual does not own, may be pursued either through the abatement process under 36 M.R.S. § 841 or by filing a declaratory judgment action in Superior Court.
- B. Property valued at $500,000 or more. For property valued at $500,000 or more, an appeal of the assessor's decision requires that a taxpayer first make a payment equal to: (1) the taxes not in dispute; or (2) the taxes paid in the prior tax year up to, but not exceeding, the current year's taxes, whichever is greater. This payment must be made by the municipal due date or must follow a payment schedule mutually agreed to by the municipality and the taxpayer.
- C. Further appeals. If the local board of assessment review denies your abatement or does not lower your property value to a satisfactory amount, you may appeal that decision to Superior Court, except that all appeals of local board decisions involving non-residential property assessed at $1 million or more must be made to the State Board of Property Tax Review. If the State Board of Property Tax Review denies your abatement or does not lower your property value to a satisfactory amount, you may appeal to the Superior Court. If the county commissioners fully or partially deny your abatement, you may appeal to the Superior Court. If you receive an unsatisfactory decision in Superior Court, you may appeal the decision to the Maine Supreme Court.

7. Timeline

- A. Abatement. Generally, an abatement request to the assessor must be made within 185 days from the municipality's commitment date. The commitment date usually occurs about the time that tax bills are first mailed for the tax year. An assessor has the discretionary authority to abate property taxes within one year of commitment, despite the 185-day deadline to submit an abatement request.

For an illegal assessment, such as property assessed to the wrong owner, you may request an abatement from the municipal officers after one year, but within three years, of the commitment date. (Municipal officers, however, are not authorized to correct an error in valuation, such as a disputed valuation method; as described above, errors in valuation may only be corrected by the assessor.) Abatement requests made during this extended deadline must be submitted to the municipal officers rather than to the assessor.

Once an abatement request is received, the assessor or municipal officers must notify you of the abatement decision within 60 days. If the assessor or municipal officers do not give written notice of the decision on a properly submitted abatement request within 60 days of receiving that request, the request is deemed to have been denied, unless you agree in writing to allow them additional time.

- B. First appeal. To appeal the assessor's or municipal officers' decision, you must file a written appeal within 60 days of the date that notice of the decision is received or within 60 days of the deemed denial. The local board of assessment review or county commissioners must provide written notice of the decision on an appeal within 60 days of receiving the appeal. With your agreement, the local board of assessment review or the county commissioners may extend the deadline. If the local board of assessment review or the county commissioners do not provide timely written notice of the decision, the appeal is deemed to have been denied after 60 days from the date the appeal is received. The State Board of Property Tax Review is not subject to a decision issuance deadline and may take longer than 60 days to issue a decision.
- C. Further appeals. An appeal of a decision by the local board of assessment review or the county commissioners to Superior Court must be filed within 30 days of the date that notice of the decision is received by the taxpayer or within 30 days of the deemed denial by the local board of assessment review or the county commissioners. An appeal of a decision by the local board of assessment review to the State Board of Property Tax Review must be made within 60 days of the date that notice of the decision is received by the taxpayer or within 60 days of the deemed denial by the local board of assessment review.

Appeals from the State Board of Property Tax Review to Superior Court must be filed within 30 days of the date that notice of the decision by the State Board of Property Tax Review is received by the taxpayer.

§841. Abatement procedures

1. Error or mistake. The assessors, either upon written application filed within 185 days from commitment stating the grounds for an abatement or on their own initiative within one year from commitment, may make such reasonable abatement as they consider proper to correct any illegality, error or irregularity in assessment if the taxpayer has complied with section 706-A.

The municipal officers, either upon written application filed after one year but within 3 years from commitment stating the grounds for an abatement or on their own initiative within that time period, may make such reasonable abatement as they consider proper to correct any illegality, error or irregularity in assessment if the taxpayer has complied with section 706-A. The municipal officers may not grant an abatement to correct an error in the valuation of property.

[PL 2017, c. 367, §7 (AMD).]

2. Hardship or poverty. The municipal officers, or the State Tax Assessor for the unorganized territory, within 3 years from commitment, may, on their own knowledge or on written application, make such abatements as they believe reasonable on the real and personal taxes on the primary residence of any person who, by reason of hardship or poverty, is in their judgment unable to contribute to the public charges. The municipal officers, or the State Tax Assessor for the unorganized territory, may extend the 3-year period within which they may make abatements under this subsection.

As used in this subsection, "primary residence" means the home, appurtenant structures necessary to support the home and acreage sufficient to satisfy the minimum lot size as required by the municipality's land use or building permit ordinance or regulations or, in the absence of any municipal minimum lot size requirement, as required by Title 12, section 4807-A.

Municipal officers or the State Tax Assessor for the unorganized territory shall:

A. Provide that any person indicating an inability to pay all or part of taxes that have been assessed because of hardship or poverty be informed of the right to make application under this subsection; [PL 2013, c. 424, Pt. A, §24 (RPR).]

B. Assist individuals in making application for abatement; [PL 2013, c. 424, Pt. A, §24 (RPR).]

he shall notify the municipal officers thereof in writing, under oath, stating the reason why that tax cannot be collected. The municipal officers, after due inquiry, may abate that tax or any part thereof. [PL 1979, c. 73 (RPR).]

4. Veteran's widow or widower or minor child. Notwithstanding failure to comply with section 706-A, the assessors, on written application within one year from the date of commitment, may make such abatement as they think proper in the case of the unremarried widow or widower or the minor child of a veteran, if the widow, widower or child would be entitled to an exemption under section 653, subsection 1, paragraph D, except for the failure of the widow, widower or child to make application and file proof within the time set by section 653, subsection 1, paragraph G, if the veteran died during the 12-month period preceding the April 1st for which the tax was committed. §842. Notice of decision

The assessors or municipal officers shall give to any person applying to them for an abatement of taxes notice in writing of their decision upon the application within 10 days after they take final action thereon. The notice of decision must include the reason or reasons supporting the decision to approve or deny the abatement request and state that the applicant has 60 days from the date the notice is received to appeal the decision. It must also identify the board or agency designated by law to hear the appeal. If the assessors or municipal officers, before whom an application in writing for the abatement of a tax is pending, fail to give written notice of their decision within 60 days from the date of filing of the application, the application is deemed to have been denied, and the applicant may appeal as provided in sections 843 and 844, unless the applicant has in writing consented to further delay. Denial in this manner is final action for the purposes of notification under this section but failure to send notice of decision does not affect the applicant's right of appeal. This section does not apply to applications for abatement made under section 841, subsection 2. [PL 2013, c. 182, §1 (AMD).]

§843. Appeals

1. Municipalities. If a municipality has adopted a board of assessment review and the assessors or the municipal officers refuse to make the abatement asked for, the applicant may apply in writing to the board of assessment review within 60 days after notice of the decision from which the appeal is being taken or after the application is deemed to have been denied, and, if the board thinks the applicant is over-assessed, the applicant is granted such reasonable abatement as the board thinks proper. Except with regard to nonresidential property or properties with an equalized municipal valuation of $1,000,000 or greater either separately or in the aggregate, either party may appeal from the decision of the board of assessment review directly to the Superior Court, in accordance with Rule 80B of the Maine Rules of Civil Procedure. If the board of assessment review fails to give written notice of its decision within 60 days of the date the application is filed, unless the applicant agrees in writing to further delay, the application is deemed denied and the applicant may appeal to Superior Court as if there had been a written denial.

[PL 1995, c. 262, §4 (AMD).]

1-A. Nonresidential property of $1,000,000 or greater. With regard to nonresidential property or properties with an equalized municipal valuation of $1,000,000 or greater either separately or in the aggregate, either party may appeal the decision of the local board of assessment review or the primary assessing area board of assessment review to the State Board of Property Tax Review within 60 days after notice of the decision from which the appeal is taken or after the application is deemed to be denied, as provided in subsections 1 and 2. The board shall hold a hearing de novo. If the board thinks that the applicant is over-assessed, it shall grant such reasonable abatement as the board thinks proper. For the purposes of this section, "nonresidential property" means property that is used primarily for commercial, industrial or business purposes, excluding unimproved land that is not associated with a commercial, industrial or business use.

[PL 1995, c. 262, §4 (AMD).]

2. Primary assessing areas. If a primary assessing area has adopted a board of assessment review and the assessors or municipal officers refuse to make the abatement asked for, the applicant may apply in writing to the board of assessment review within 60 days after notice of the decision from which the appeal is being taken or after the application is deemed to have been denied, and if the board thinks the applicant is over-assessed, the applicant is granted such reasonable abatement as the board thinks proper. Except with regard to nonresidential property or properties with an equalized municipal valuation of $1,000,000 or greater, either separately or in the aggregate, either party may appeal the decision of the board of assessment review directly to the Superior Court, in accordance with the Maine Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 80B. If the board of assessment review fails to give written notice of its decision within 60 days of the date the application was filed, unless the applicant agrees in writing to further delay, the application is deemed denied and the applicant may appeal to the Superior Court as if there had been a written denial.

[PL 2001, c. 396, §17 (AMD).]

3. Notice of decision. Any agency to which an appeal is made under this section is subject to the provisions for notice of decision in section 842.

[PL 1991, c. 546, §12 (NEW).]

4. Payment requirements for taxpayers. A taxpayer filing an appeal under this section must pay an amount of current taxes equal to the greater of the amount of taxes paid in the immediately preceding tax year, to the extent that amount does not exceed the amount of taxes due in the current tax year, and the amount of taxes in the current tax year that is not in dispute. If the taxpayer has filed an appeal under this section without paying the appropriate amount of taxes by or after the due date or according to a payment schedule mutually agreed to in writing by the taxpayer and the municipal officers, the appeal process must be suspended until the taxes, together with any accrued interest and costs, have been paid. If an appeal is in process upon expiration of a due date or written payment schedule date for payment of taxes in a particular municipality, without the appropriate amount of taxes having been paid, whether the taxes are due for the year under appeal or a subsequent tax year, the appeal process must be suspended until the appropriate amount of taxes described in this subsection, together with any accrued interest and costs, has been paid. This subsection does not apply to property with a valuation of less than $500,000.

§844. Appeals to county commissioners

1. Municipalities without board of assessment review. Except when the municipality or primary assessing area has adopted a board of assessment review, if the assessors or the municipal officers refuse to make the abatement asked for, the applicant may apply to the county commissioners within 60 days after notice of the decisions from which the appeal is being taken or within 60 days after the application is deemed to have been denied. If the commissioners think that the applicant is over-assessed, the applicant is granted such reasonable abatement as the commissioners think proper. If the applicant has paid the tax, the applicant is reimbursed out of the municipal treasury, with costs in either case. If the applicant fails, the commissioners shall allow costs to the municipality, taxed as in a civil action in the Superior Court, and issue their warrant of distress against the applicant for collection of the amount due the municipality. The commissioners may require the assessors or municipal clerk to produce the valuation by which the assessment was made or a copy of it. Either party may appeal from the decision of the county commissioners to the Superior Court, in accordance with the Maine Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 80B. If the county commissioners fail to give written notice of their decision within 60 days of the date the application is filed, unless the applicant agrees in writing to further delay, the application is deemed denied and the applicant may appeal to the Superior Court as if there had been a written denial.

[PL 2001, c. 396, §18 (AMD).]

1-A. County board of assessment review. The county commissioners in a county may establish a county board of assessment review to hear all appeals to the county commissioners. The board has the powers and duties of a municipal board of assessment review, including those provided under section 844-M.

[PL 1995, c. 262, §6 (NEW).]

2. Nonresidential property of $1,000,000 or greater. Notwithstanding subsection 1, the applicant may appeal the decision of the assessors or the municipal officers on a request for abatement with respect to nonresidential property or properties having an equalized municipal valuation of $1,000,000 or greater, either separately or in the aggregate, to the State Board of Property Tax Review within 60 days after notice of the decision from which the appeal is taken or after the application is deemed to be denied. If the State Board of Property Tax Review determines that the applicant is over-assessed, it shall grant such reasonable abatement as it determines proper. For the purposes of this subsection, "nonresidential property" means property that is used primarily for commercial, industrial or business purposes, excluding unimproved land that is not associated with a commercial, industrial or business use.

[PL 2011, c. 548, §13 (AMD).]

3. Notice of decision. An appeal to the county commissioners is subject to the provisions for notice of decision in section 842.

[PL 1991, c. 546, §13 (NEW).]

4. Payment requirements for taxpayers. If the taxpayer has filed an appeal under this section without having paid an amount of current taxes equal to the amount of taxes paid in the next preceding tax year, as long as that amount does not exceed the amount of taxes due in the current tax year or the amount of taxes in the current tax year not in dispute, whichever is greater, by or after the due date, or according to a payment schedule mutually agreed to in writing by the taxpayer and the municipal officers, the appeal process must be suspended until the taxes, together with any accrued interest and costs, have been paid. If an appeal is in process upon expiration of a due date or written payment schedule date for payment of taxes in a particular municipality, without the appropriate amount of taxes having been paid, whether the taxes are due for the year under appeal or a subsequent tax year, the appeal process must be suspended until the appropriate amount of taxes described in this subsection, together with any accrued interest and costs, has been paid. This subsection does not apply to property with a valuation of less than $500,000.

§848-A. Assessment ratio evidence

Reports of assessment ratios contained in assessment ratio studies of the Bureau of Revenue Services are prima facie evidence of what the reported ratio is in fact, unless a party to proceedings related to a protested assessment establishes that the ratio was derived or established in a manner contrary to law or proves the existence of a different ratio. [PL 2001, c. 396, §19 (AMD).]

In any proceedings relating to a protested assessment, it is a sufficient defense of the assessment that it is accurate within reasonable limits of practicality, except when a proven deviation of 10% or more from the relevant assessment ratio of the municipality or primary assessing area exists.
